

Unsolicited phone calls lower the quality of life in New Jersey. I prefer the current system of greatly reduced unsolicited calls. Would it be possible to make the Federal do not call plan match New Jersey and increase the quality of life for all Americans, rather than penalize New Jersey for having something better?